

1 SEASON 12 EPISODE

WARMING-UP

1 Read the title of the episode and guess what it will be about. What associations do you have? What words make up the word Summerween?

2 Take a look at the pictures. What do you think they show? What holiday do they represent?

3 Think about your life and answer. Does Halloween exist in Russia and how is it celebrated? Do you or your friends celebrate Halloween? Why?

PART 1 BEFORE YOU WATCH

1 Language guess. Guess the meaning of the words in bold according to contexts and situations in the cartoon.

They're gonna run away screaming from Stan Pines, Master of Fright!

Me and Dipper were kind of the kings of trick-or-treating.

It's a night of ghouls and goblins.

I heard a ruckus.

Uh, actually, I'm not dressed up as anything.

We have to hide!

2 Find the meaning of each word, match the words with their definitions according to the pattern.

Fright	an action that is intended to deceive, either as a way of cheating someone, or as a joke or form of entertainment.
Trick	a type of food that is eaten in addition to your usual meals, usually something sweet.
Ghoul	to change your appearance by wearing special or unusual clothes.
Treat	the feeling of fear, especially if felt suddenly, or an experience of fear that happens suddenly.
To dress up	to prevent something from being seen.
To hide	a noisy situation or argument.
Ruckus	an evil spirit that eats dead bodies.

3 Expand your vocabulary and learn some idioms from this episode.

Twins in costumes, the people eat it up.

I'd lend you a hand... but I don't seem to have any!

Not to mention... the Summerween Trickster!

Tambry's parents are out of town, and this party gonna be OFF THE CHAIN.

I apologize for my brother, he came down with a case of the grumpy-grumps.

How are we gonna get that much candy in one night? There's no way!

3d Try to match the mentioned idioms with their meanings

a) no possible method or chance (that something will happen)

c) to help one; to give one assistance

e) used to introduce extra information and emphasize your saying

b) very exciting; excellent; extremely fun or enjoyable

d) by extension, an occurrence of something

f) to thoroughly enjoy something

PART 2 WHILE WATCHING

1 Watch the episode and answer the following questions.

1. What month is Summerween in? a) June b) July c) August
2. How does Grunkle Stan pay for the blood at the store?
3. What time does the party start that Dipper is invited to?
4. What costume do Dipper and Mabel go as?
5. How many pieces of candy must the children collect?
6. What happens to the candy they collected?
7. What creature is Grunkle Stan dressed as?
8. Who is the only kid not in a costume when they first go trick or treating?
9. Does Dipper go to the party?
10. Does the Summerween Trickster cry at the end of the episode?
11. How did the Summerween Trickster die?

2 Find out who said the following lines. Why do you think the character said it that way? What emotions did the character express?

Well, you dudes better be careful out there. It's a night of ghouls and goblins. Not to mention... the Summerween Trickster!	Dipper
Shut up, Robbie, of course he's not going trick-or-treating.	Stan
Fight through it, man! Where's your Summerween spirit?	Wendy
How are we gonna get that much candy in one night? There's no way!	Trickster
SILENCE! You have insulted me! For this you must pay... with your LIVES.	Mabel
It's a day when the whole family can get together at one place and celebrate what really matters: PURE EVIL!	Soos

For example, Soos whispered these words eerily, in order to scare the children with the legend of the town. He also paused for dramatic effect. The phrase "you better be careful" sounds like advice.

PART 3 AFTER YOU WATCHED

1

Talking time. Match the suit and the hero correctly, try to remember the Lady Susan's assumption. Discuss why she thought this way.

a real costume

Candy
Witch
Superhero
Jelly
Peanut Butter

Lady Susan's assumption

Chimney Sweep
Elephant Man
Squeegee
Ant Farm

2

Design and describe your Summerween costume.

Dipper thinks he is too old to celebrate Summerween and sees the Trickster as an adult who acts childish. Do you think it's important to keep your inner child alive? Discuss in pairs or groups and present your opinion to the class.

You're a little old for this, man. Sorry.

I just felt like I was getting a little to old to go trick-or-treating.

YOUR VOCABULARY BANK

WORDS

to dress up	to change your appearance by wearing special or unusual clothes
fright	the feeling of fear, especially if felt suddenly, or an experience of fear that happens suddenly
ghoul	an evil spirit that eats dead bodies
to hide	to prevent something from being seen trick	an action that is intended to deceive, either as a way of cheating someone, or as a joke or form of entertainment
treat	a type of food that is eaten in addition to your usual meals, usually something sweet
ruckus	a noisy situation or argument

IDIOMS

a case of smh	by extension, an occurrence of something
eat it up	to thoroughly enjoy something to lend smb a hand	to help one; to give one assistance
no way	no possible method or chance (that something will happen)
not to mention	used to introduce extra information and emphasize your saying
off the chain	very exciting; excellent; extremely fun or enjoyable